

PRESS RELEASE

IICRC Carpet Cleaning Certification Seminar in Hawaii Feb 25 & 26

The Professional Cleaning Institute of Hawaii (PCIH) in cooperation with the International Executive Housekeeper Association (www.IEHA.org) and CRESTEK Cleaning Center will bring Author and Consultant Wm R. Griffin to Honolulu to conduct his two-day hands-on IICRC's Carpet Cleaning Technician (CCT) Certification Course.

Students will use the latest procedures, chemicals and equipment to spot, clean, maintain and restore all types of carpeting found in commercial and residential locations. Attendees will learn to identify fibers, styles, construction methods and how they respond to wet and low moisture cleaning and spotting processes. This is a hand class where student will learn by doing.

Griffin is a CMI Master Instructor, CMM columnist, CIMS Assessor, IICRC carpet and hard floor inspector and the author of over 300 articles and 10 books on cleaning, maintenance and self employment. The course will help prepare participants for advancement on the job or self employment opportunities and to take the IICRC Certification Exam which will be offered at the end of the second day. College credit for the course will be available through Renton Technical College.

To register for the Feb 25 & 26 course in Hawaii, call CRESTEK at: 808-942-2500 or PCIH at: 808-944-8255, email: Roseg@pcihawaii.com Internet: www.pcihawaii.com Seating is limited.

Griffin will teach the Floor Care Technician (FCT) and Stone, Masonry and Ceramic Tile Technician (SMT) courses in Seattle, WA at Renton Technical College on March 23 to 26, for information on the Seattle courses call 206-682-9748 or visit: www.cleaningconsultants.com
